Brintons to Exhibit at Maison & Objet in Paris

Brintons, the world's leading carpet manufacturer, is showcasing the 'Best of British' at Maison & Objet Paris' 20th anniversary exhibition on the 4th – 8th September.

This will be the first year that Brintons will be exhibiting at the prestigious show in Paris, and it will be displaying a design from its HD Weave collection designed in collaboration with Cristian Zuzunaga. The collection provides the ability to weave in up to 32 colours and creates stunning photorealistic effects.

There will also be able an opportunity to view the new Inspirations collection, with a design being on display at the stand. Inspirations has been created based on three themes including tropical, geometric, and architectural, by a team of in-house designers.

Anna Plumb, Europe Sales Manager for Brintons, comments: "Maison & Objet in Paris is a key event, which attracts those at the forefront of design. That's why we're delighted to be showcasing our collections, which have all been created by talented British designers.

"It is our first time at the exhibition and we've had a strong year launching many new collections as well as creating a range of bespoke carpets for a range of commercial projects and we're excited to be able to promote this at Maison & Objet."
