Brintons and Looney & Associates collaborated on 9,600 square yards of custom axminster carpet and 600 square feet of custom hand tufted rugs for Duke University's new hotel and conference center in Durham, NC.

"Due to the large scale of the carpet patterns, we ordered multiple rounds of strike offs and prints to assist our clients in visualizing the final product. Brintons was actively involved throughout the design process and very accommodating during the planning and installation phases to ensure complete client (and designer!) satisfaction."
